

CAREER OPPORTUNITY: SYSTEMS TRANSFORMATIONS FOR SUSTAINABILITY

We are working towards a world that works for 100% of humanity and the planet. Our contribution is to spread collective leadership for sustainability transformations. This is the vision that led to the founding of the Collective Leadership Institute (CLI) gGmbH as a non-profit organization in 2005 and the vision that has informed our work around the world ever since. As a mission-driven social enterprise with offices in Germany and South Africa, CLI builds capacity among diverse change agents towards the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals.

Based on our Collective Leadership Compass and Dialogic Change Model, and with an emphasis on SDG 17 on partnerships, we build competencies for systems transformations. This includes transformative process designs, high quality stakeholder engagement and dialogue, and partnerships across sectors.

We seek to expand our team with a Project Manager based in our main office in Potsdam, Germany. Your core responsibilities will include the following:

- Facilitate educational programs according to CLI methodology and practices
- Co-develop project process architectures, provide stewardship support to active and new projects according to CLI methodology and practices
- Conceptualize and fundraise for partnership projects that apply and convey CLI's methodology
- Contribute to strategy and methodology development
- Document stories of transformation in articles, studies, and social media

Your Profile:

- Experience in delivering interactive, practice-based educational programs and process facilitation of complex change with multiple stakeholders
- Up-to-date with recent advances in systems thinking and practice
- Knowledgeable about sustainability transformation approaches
- Experience in working in various cultural contexts
- Commitment to high quality work in a timely fashion
- Willingness to travel extensively and frequently
- Ability to drive impact in teams and communities of change
- Master or postgraduate level degree with proven experience in complex multi-actor change management, leadership development, sustainability, or similar
- Oral and written fluency in French and English required; German fluency highly desired; Arabic, Russian, and/or Spanish also desirable

We Offer You

- A tightly-knit, motivated, dynamic, and international team that is working in concert toward our shared vision
- A competitive NGO salary package
