

CLI's new hybrid format – bridging the best of two worlds

In-person participation

- Conceptual input: listen to the CLI facilitator in the room and learn more about methodologies to enhance Collective Leadership
- Plenary discussions: ask all your questions to the CLI facilitator, present your findings, and learn from other participants' inputs – both offline and online
- Group work: with your fellow in-person participants in the meeting room on flipcharts and pinboards
- Breaks: two coffee breaks and a larger lunch break to refresh and exchange with fellow in-person participants
- Socializing: during breaks and welcome dinner on the evening of course day 2

Online participation

- Conceptual input: listen to the CLI facilitator in Zoom and learn more about methodologies to enhance Collective Leadership
- Plenary discussions: ask all your questions to the CLI facilitator, present your findings, and learn from other participants' inputs – both offline and online, the Owl technology (see picture below) will make you feel (almost) being part of the physical room in Potsdam
- Group work: with your fellow online participants in Zoom on jamboards and mural, additional CLI online facilitator support
- Breaks: two short and one long break per day to refresh and avoid Zoom fatigue
- Socializing: fun exercises with participants in Potsdam

Facts and figures

In-person participation

Online participation

In CLI's office in Potsdam	In Zoom accessible worldwide
Maximum capacity: 10 participants (reserve your space soon!)	(almost) no maximum capacity, group work will be divided into small break-out groups
CLI's Online Academy: for course registration and documentation afterwards	CLI's Online Academy: for course registration and documentation afterwards, providing all online tools during each course day
1 CLI Facilitator: lead facilitator for methodological guidance	2 Facilitators: lead facilitator for methodological guidance, online facilitator for technical questions and group work support
Course fee: 1,900 EUR for four training days incl. course material, lunch each day, welcome dinner day 2; travel and accommodation are extra	Course fee: 1,500 EUR for four training days incl. course material, no travel travel and accommodation costs